COMMENDING THE UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TROJANS
FOOTBALL TEAM

Mr. LUGAR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 12, submitted earlier today by Senators FEINSTEIN and BOXER.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 12) commending the University of Southern California Trojans football team for winning the 2004 Bowl Championship Series national championship game.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, as a strong supporter of California's college athletes, I rise today with Senator BOXER in support of S. Res. 12 commending the University of Southern California Trojans football team for winning the 2004 Bowl Championship Series national championship game.

No one who witnessed the Trojans decisive 55 to 19 victory over the University of Oklahoma in the FedEx Orange Bowl can deny that USC is the best college football team in the Nation. Led by Head Coach Pete Carroll, the Trojans brought home their 11th national championship, their 22nd straight win, and 27th victory in a bowl game, second all time to only the University of Alabama.

Not even the most die-hard Trojan fan could have anticipated such a win.

In addition to winning 13 games during the 2004 season for the first time in the history of the school, USC became the first team since the University of Nebraska in 1994-1995 to repeat as Associated Press national champions and the second team to start and finish the season at number one in the Associated Press poll. As the number one team in the country, they took on the best and they beat the best.
